

Power your classroom:

Make an impact on your students' futures.

The Group Student Membership (GSM) program makes it easy for you as a faculty member to enroll your students (five or more) as PMI members. Whether for a degree-granting course or an institutionally recognized student group, your students will receive all the benefits of membership in Project Management Institute (PMI), which can help them get started in a project management career.

When an institution purchases a group of memberships (minimum of five), or bulk student bundle (CAPM® and student membership together), one complimentary membership for a faculty member or advisor is included as well, so you can access the same benefits as your students.

The global economy will need 25 million additional project professionals by 2030, according to the PMI Talent Gap report. To meet this demand, 2.3 million people will need to enter project management-oriented employment every year—and not just any people. Organizations need individuals with key leadership skills in addition to the knowledge and expertise essential for helping a company achieve positive project outcomes.

GSM can help bring learning experiences to life.
